

STATUTORY DECLARATION

Transfer of Interest in Property to Husband/Wife/De Facto Spouse

QUEENSLAND
TO WIT

I,
of,
in the state of Queensland, do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am the transferor of an interest in property described as.....
.....to my *husband/wife/de facto spouse.

- The transfer is wholly by way of gift and the after the transfer we will hold the property as joint tenants or tenants in common in equal shares.
- The property will be used as our principal residence from the date of the transfer.
- *We have a:
 - (i) valid and subsisting marriage – Date of Marriage .../.../...
 - (ii) we are living in a subsisting de facto relationship and have lived together as a defacto couple for at least 2 years.
- Description of property: *Dwelling house/flat/unit
- Value: Residential land (includes residence) $.....
- Value: Non-residential property¹ $.....

- Total Value $

- Value of property being transferred² $

I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of the Oaths Act 1867.

Signed

Taken and declared before me at

This day of Year

.....
Person who may take declarations³

* Cross out whichever is not applicable.

¹ If a business or other income producing activity is being conducted on the property, apportionment is required.

² For example, if one half of the property is being transferred, one half of the total value is to be shown.

³ Declarations can be taken by:

- (i) a justice of the peace, commissioner of declarations or notary public under the law of the State, the Commonwealth or another state; or
- (ii) a lawyer: or
- (iii) another person authorised to administer an oath under the law of the State, the Commonwealth or another state.